PM, Stalin bond as Chess Olympiad kicks off

Amid artistic performances, Tamil culture on display at inaugural of the sporting event

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

THE State government put together a feast of Tamil culture as Prime Minister Narendra Modi declared open the 44th Chess Olympiad on Thursday amid visible bonhomie between him and Chief Minister M K Stalin. "Tamil Nadu has a strong historical connection with chess," said Modi, sporting a shawl and dhoti with a checked border, and referring to Sathuranga Vallabhanathar, the chess deity in Tiruvarur district's Thiruppovanur.

Hailing the organisers for making outstanding arrangements, the PM said this is the first time India is hosting the Chess Olympiad. It's also being held in Asia after three decades, he added. The event has attracted a record number of entries in the open (188) and women's (162) sections.

Indian chess legend Vishwanathan Anand handed over the chess torch, that had travelled across the nation, to Stalin.

Stalin said it took four months for the State government to host the Olympiad, after the event was moved out of Russia. "Usually, such an event takes 18 months (to organise)," he noted, adding the State spent ₹102 crore on hosting the event. Recalling Modi's fondness for chess, Stalin highlighted how Modi had presented a chess set to the Bhutan royal family.

The centrepiece of the evening's entertainment was a presentation on the State's ancient culture and civilisation. Through dance and music and a voiceover by actor Kamal Hassan milestones of Tamil history were depicted.

Earlier, State-level chess champions from State government schools carried masts of the participating countries into a packed Jawaharlal Nehru Indoor Stadium. Sand artist Sarvam Patel created magic with his skill by interspersing the ancient Mamallapuram shore temple, the game of chess, and portraits of Modi and Stalin. India's diversity was also showcased with eight forms of Indian classical dance being performed. Musician Lydian Nadhaswaram stole the show by playing the piano blindfolded. P17

India, US to begin with black pieces

The top seeds in both categories — Open (US) and Women (India) — will have their top board player open the Olympiad with black pieces. The draw was yet to be published at the time of going to press.

Include photos of President and PM on ads, rules HC

The Madurai Bench of the Madras High Court on Wednesday directed the Tamil Nadu government to ensure advertisements for the Chess Olympiad also display photos of President Droupadi Murmu and Prime Minister Narendra Modi. The petitioner alleged only photos of Chief Minister MK Stalin were being displayed on advertisements

SECOND MURDER WITHIN 48 HOURS JOLTS KARNATAKA

VINCENT D'SOUZA @Mangaluru

LESS than 48 hours after BJP Yuva Morcha member Praveen Nettaru was brutally murdered at Nettaru in Sullia taluk of Dakshina Kannada, another youth was murdered at Suratkal near Mangaluru on Thursday evening. The CCTV footage from the spot showed Fazil (23), the victim, talking to another person in front of a shop when four masked men chased and attacked him with sharp weapons. He was rushed to a private hospital where he was declared brought dead.

The incident occurred when CM Basavaraj Bommai was still in Dakshina Kannada and was returning from Nettaru after visiting the family of Praveen. Fazil's killing comes at a time when the government is in a fire-fighting mode following the outrage from its own cadres over the death of Praveen.

Fazil

The motive behind Fazil's murder is still not known. While some sources said his murder could be in retaliation to Nettaru's killing, others said it has nothing to do with it but was a result of a love affair. Soon after the news of the incident spread, people shut their shops in Suratkal and the police beefed up security across the district.

Meanwhile, two persons were arrested in connection with the murder of Nettaru on Thursday. DK SP Rishikesh Sonawane said the accused are Zakir, 29, a resident of Savanoor village and Shafiq, 27, of Bellare village. P4

CM: If need arises, we will adopt 'Yogi model'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Wednesday said if the situation arises, the Karnataka government will not shy away from adopting Uttar Pradesh CM Yogi Adityanath's model to take tough action against anti-national and communal elements.

Under 'Yogi model', UP CM has made attempts to rein in anti-national elements by using bulldozers to raze houses and properties of people allegedly involved in riots.

Responding to a question on the demand by several BJP party workers and leaders on implementing the Yogi model, the CM said for the situation in Uttar Pradesh, Yogi (Adityanath) is the right chief minister. There are different methods to deal with the situation in Karnataka. "If the situation demands, we will go for Yogi model in Karnataka too," Bommai said.

Bommai government, which completed one year in office on Thursday, cancelled its first anniversary celebrations after a BJP youth leader's murder at Sullia in coastal Karnataka. Speaking to reporters on Thursday, Bommai said the government is facing many challenges at present. There are forces which are trying to disturb communal harmony across the country, including in Karnataka. P4

WON'T REST UNTIL CULPRITS HELD: CM

CM handed over two cheques of Rs 25 lakh each from the government and the party. While consoling Praveen's elderly parents and wife Noothana, he said he will not rest until the culprits are arrested. Nettaru's mother told the CM that not just her family but families of all those murdered in the past should get justice. "No family should suffer like ours. Take strict action against those behind the incident," she said.

Sparks fly as Sonia, Smriti spar over Adhir quip

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@New Delhi

SPARKS flew in the Lok Sabha after it was adjourned at noon on Thursday as Congress chief Sonia Gandhi and Union minister Smriti Irani's were locked in a verbal duel over the distasteful Rashtrapatni remark made by Congress floor leader Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury.

Congress claimed Sonia was verbally assaulted and faced physical intimidation from BJP members led by Irani after the former walked across to the treasury benches to ask another BJP member Rama Devi why she (Sonia) was being targeted.

Chowdhury had termed President Droupadi Murmu as Rashtrapatni during a protest, with the ruling party demanded an apology. The matter is expected to rock Parliament on Friday as well, as Congress MPs intend to take it up with Speaker Om Birla seeking the BJP's apology. Around 25 Congress MPs have written to Birla demanding that it be referred to the Privileges Committee.

It was Irani who first raised the matter in the Lok Sabha, alleging Congress was anti-women and anti-tribal. Amid BJP slogans of "Sonia Gandhi maafi mango", Sonia walked up to Devi and asked why she was being dragged into it. While Sonia was talking to Devi, Irani intervened. Sonia tried to ignore her but when BJP MPs started sloganeering, she was seen talking to Irani angrily. Union finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman said Sonia told Irani, "You don't talk to me."

SC to K'taka: Publish list within a week

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday directed the Karnataka government to publish ward-wise reservation list for the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) within a week to facilitate formation of local bodies within reasonable time.

"We direct the state government to immediately notify ward-wise reservation chart to facilitate the State Election Commission (SEC) to initiate appropriate steps for ensuring constitution of local bodies in accordance with the provision of Act. Within one week from today, the State will publish," the court said.

If there is any delay on the part of the SEC, a bench comprising Justices A M Khanwilkar and J B Pardiwala, granted liberty to the aggrieved persons to approach the court.

State Advocate General Prabhuling K Navadgi apprised the bench that in compliance with its order of May 20, the State government completed the delimitation process on June 9 and also published the delimitation notification on July 14.

In May, the court had asked the Karnataka government to complete the process of delimitation of wards for BBMP and to notify the same within a period of eight weeks. P2

Mamata sacks corrupt Partha from Cabinet

PRONAB MONDAL @Kolkata

WITH the stench of corruption involving Trinamool's No 3 leader getting unmanageable, party boss and West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on Thursday sacked Partha Chatterjee as a minister and suspended him from all party posts. He was arrested by the Enforcement Directorate last Saturday in connection with the school jobs scam.

Parallelly, Chatterjee's aide and actor Arpita Mukherjee sought to distance herself from the stash recovered from her two apartments saying it was Chatterjee's money, adding she was not allowed to enter the rooms housing the notes.

During its raids, the ED had recovered nearly ₹50 crore from her two Kolkata houses. Mamata was under pressure from the party to wash her hands off the scam. Later, TMC's national general secretary Abhishek Banerjee convened an emergency meeting of the party's disciplinary committee and axed Chatterjee from party posts. "We will take a call if he comes back with a clean chit," said Banerjee, the second-in-command in the party and Mamata's nephew.

Banerjee claimed the TMC has no link with the cash recovered from Arpita's house. "Our party has no connection with the persons from whose houses the money was recovered. If anyone earns money illegally, the party will not tolerate him or her," he said. However, the BJP alleged that many top TMC leaders, including Mamata, are involved in the scam. P10

Keeping Cubbon gate open till 11pm threat to museum

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

THE state government's plan to keep a gate of Cubbon Park open till late night, instead of till 9 pm, to give members of a tennis club run by Karnataka State Lawn Tennis Association more time at the club has triggered criticism from various quarters.

Authorities concerned are planning to keep the road, which connects heritage museum on Kasturba Road to the tennis club, open till 11 pm.

Spread across 100 acres, Cubbon Park has seven entry/exit points including at Bal Bhavan, UB City and MS Building. One of the entrance/exit gates is next to Government Museum that was established in 1865 by the then Mysore State.

This is one of the oldest museums in India which is home to a rare collection of archaeological items, old jewellery, sculpture, coins and inscriptions. It also has Halmidi inscription, which is said to be the earliest Kannada inscription. P2

US in technical recession as GDP shrinks in 2nd qtr

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

IN a negative surprise, the US GDP in the April-June quarter contracted 0.9% against analysts' estimate of a 0.5% growth. The negative growth comes close on the heels of a 1.6% contraction in the January-March quarter, which means the US is in technical recession.

The Bureau of Economic Analysis attributed the drop in real GDP to a decrease in private investment as well as government spending. The provisional GDP numbers, though, showed a rise in exports and personal consumption expenditures. Imports also increased.

The negative GDP growth number came a day after the Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell pointed to the robust labour market as evidence that the US economy is not in recession and said that at some point of time they will slow down the rate of interest hike.

Economists blame the US Federal Reserve's tighter monetary policy for the contraction. The Federal Reserve had on Wednesday increased the US policy rates by 75 basis points.

Following the release of data, the US markets fell up to 1% on early Thursday trade, though they later recovered the losses and traded in a flat range. The US GDP data, which indicates that the world's largest economy now is technically in the recession zone is expected to weigh on investors' sentiments worldwide.

RARE artworks of S H Raza and F N Souza. Luxury watches manufactured by Jacob & Co and Frank Muller Geneve. Loads of gold and diamond jewellery. The collective price tag: a whopping ₹12.5 crore.

They were not some uber-luxury collection on display but part of a stash of scam-tainted Dewan Housing Finance Corporation Ltd (DHFL) directors Kapil Wadhawan and Dheeraj Wadhawan.

The items were seized by the CBI on Thursday. The agency was conducted searches in an ongoing case related to alleged loss of ₹34,615 crore by a consortium of 17 banks led by Union Bank of India.

"Two paintings made by F N Souza (1964) another by S H Raza (1956) worth ₹5.50 crore; two watches of Jacob & Co & Frank Muller Geneve make worth ₹5 crore and gold and diamond jewellery, including bangles and necklace worth ₹2 crore have been recovered," the CBI said.

While Raza's 1956 oil-on-canvas painting titled 'Village' is worth over ₹3.50 crore, FN Souza's 1964-untitled oil-on-linen piece is valued at ₹2 crore. The accused siphoned off loans, cooked up books and created shell companies/false entities, known as 'Bandra Book Entities'.

Separate audits by other private auditing firms found multiple instances of diversion of funds by the accused for personal benefit and falsification of books of accounts. The audits also identified several instances where large value loans were provided to fictitious entities.

BBMP ELECTIONS: OFFICIALS TO COMPLETE QUOTA WORK IN A WEEK

Ready for polls, dates to be announced nine weeks after delimitation, say EC officials

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

WITH the Supreme Court directing the state government to complete the reservation exercise within a week, officials have set the ball in motion to conduct the municipal council elections.

A senior government official, not wanting to be named, said the long-delayed exercise of holding Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) council elections is likely to be announced by August-end or September first week.

The Supreme Court on Thursday directed the state government to complete the reservation exercise for elections in a week's time. "Once the apex court orders are issued, there is no other option. The city has been running for very long without corporators. Filing an appeal will not take us anywhere. We need corporators and the city has been waiting for it. This was, in fact, the suggestion of most of the citizens when they filed their objections during the delimitation exercise," a senior BBMP official said.

Officials said they will try their best to complete the reservation exercise in a week's time, keeping former corporators of all parties and citizens in mind. After this, the reservation will be sent to the government for approval, and placed before the public for objections. Once finalised, it will be sent to the Election Commission.

EC officials said they were ready for elections, and that as per earlier SC directions, election dates should be announced in the ninth week after delimitation is completed.

Former Congress corporator and opposition leader in the BBMP council Abdul Wajid (who is also one of the petitioners) said even as the government tried all methods to postpone the elections, the delimitation draft is completed, so elections should be held.

Srinivas Alavilli, civic head, participation, Janagraaha, said one week is enough to complete reservation and publish it. "Compared to delimitation, this is a smaller exercise. If some one is not happy, then after five years, things can be changed."

PARTY LEADERS DO GROUNDWORK: R ASHOKA

Revenue Minister R Ashoka said that as per Supreme Court orders, the government is ready for elections. There is no fear and many meetings have also been held at the booth and ward level. The party workers and leaders have done all the ground work. The election date will be fixed soon and all the required works will be done by the government. He added that he will also discuss the same with the CM.

'Allowing public late night will imperil Museum items'

THE government is now all set to allow motorists from the gate which is close to Government Museum. Despite the seven entry/exits points being closed by 9 pm, only the gate near the museum will be open till 11 pm as per the proposal. According to a document available with TNIE, Horticulture Department director has called a meeting on Friday to discuss and take decisions on many issues including the one on extending deadline for closing the gate.

Devarakonda Reddy, President of Karnataka Itihaasa Academy told TNIE that they have been opposing the plan for a long time and had even written a letter to authorities concerned including Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai.

The museum building is adjacent to Venkatappa Art Gallery which was started in 1971 and Vishveshwariah Museum which opened in 1961. All three places, which have put on display expensive items including antique pieces, attract visitors.

"Allowing public till late night will pose a threat to these items. We are not just allowing anti-social elements into the premises but also posing threat to trees inside Cubbon Park," he said. One has to pass by the century-old huge inscriptions on the road connecting the museum to the club. "If any miscreants damage these precious writings, who will be responsible?'' asked a staffer of the museum on condition of anonymity.

Soon, techies can walk from ITPL Metro stn to office

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

THOUSANDS of staffers working at firms dotting the International Tech Park Bangalore (ITPB) campus in Whitefield will now have a major incentive to use the Namma Metro for commuting. The BMRCL has given the nod for a walkway from the ITPL (old name) station to the sprawling campus, said multiple sources.

The elevated station on the 15-km Baiyappanahalli-Whitefield Line will provide direct connectivity from the concourse area to the entrance of the campus, which is gearing up for launch by year-end, said a source.

"The FOB to be built by ITPB will be 100 m, but will offer the much-needed convenience for staffers," he said. An MoU between BMRCL and ITPB will be signed shortly, another source said.

While the Sampige Road Mantri Mall station of phase-I has already established direct access to the mall from the Metro station, a 350-m walkway has been readied from the Infosys Konapanna Agrahara (earlier known as Electronic City-2) station on the RV Road-Bommasandra Line to the Infosys Limited campus nearby.

BMRCL was open to provide direct connectivity to residential or commercial establishments , he added. "Near the Bellandur Metro station is the RMZ Ecospace Business Park, near Kadubeesanahalli station is Embassy Tech Village and near the Kodibeesenahalli station are Salarpuria Eminence and Prestige Tech Park," a source pointed out. Similarly the Bagmane Tech Park is near DRDO while the NCC Resi Tower is near Saraswathi Nagar. BMRCL MD conducted an inspection of the line on Monday. "BMRCL was looking at conducting trial runs between KR Puram and Whitefield in September, and from K R Puram and Baiyappanahalli in November," an official said.

Rejuvenation, development in B'luru unscientific, says expert

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

INTER-linking of rivers and Mekedatu project would be rendered useless if conservation of wetlands in Bengaluru is not undertaken properly, said Dr T V Ramachandra, coordinator for the Energy and Wetlands Research Group, and scientific officer for the Centre for Ecological Sciences at the Indian Institute of Science (IISc).

He also pointed out that there has been a spike in kidney failures and other ailments due to dumping of waste in lakes across the city.

Speaking at a webinar organised by the Karnataka branch of the India March for Science on 'World Conservation Day' on Thursday, he said rejuvenation projects and development in Bengaluru is unscientific. "Poor people in the city are paying for the decisions of the elite in a developing Bengaluru. Weaker public transport, poor rejuvenation done unscientifically by the government and unplanned urbanisation all have a negative impact on the city," he said.

Noting that urban planning has led to an increase in temperature, he said, "Architectural planning is poor. Instead of accomodating what's right, we have glass buildings imitated from colder countries that are designed to trap heat," he said.

Weaker public transport system has led to an increase in vehicular pollution compared to other Indian cities, he said. "Bengaluru has gone from being the garden city to the garbage city. Unscientific planning has led to narrowing and concretisation of major drains. Meanwhile, encroachment of rajakaluves and lakes for lakeside apartments have contributed to flooding," he said.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

29th July: Virgo is my sign of the day. Actually it's one of my favourite signs. People often think of Virgos as shy and timid people. In point of fact, the sign's mythology dates back to the time when ancient people worshipped the great Earth Goddess. She was a powerful, creative figure - revealing Virgo's hidden nature. If you meet a Virgo today, give them a bit more respect!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
There's a great deal of optimism in the air, and everyone expects the best. The only Arien weakness is a tendency to go right over the top and forget that certain fundamental details must be taken care of. Hopefully a partner will do their bit and help out, but you might have to ask first, if that doesn't offend your pride.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Although you're normally among the most stable of people, you have been pushed this way and that by reckless impulses this week. You're still under planetary pressure to make impetuous decisions, based on the belief that things must and can only get better.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
By all means let partners make the first move. Indeed, a great many curious personal developments may occur if you sit back and allow fate to take its course. You may accept invitations you'd normally be minded to ignore, once you've checked all the ins and outs.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
The Sun is so brilliantly positioned in relation to Jupiter that it seems almost inevitable that something is going to happen to change your life. Is it possible that a trivial event may have profound consequences in the months to come? The answer is a resounding 'yes'.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Listen carefully to what other people say and accept all interesting offers as long as you leave yourself a get-out clause until you're absolutely certain. Your charitable and idealistic impulses are now being triggered, as is your interest in foreign cultures and exotic climes.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
The Sun's relationship with Jupiter only emphasises what I've already said about this week, namely that you have a chance to stop being a hidebound, conventional Virgo and develop your untapped adventurous qualities. Let other people pick up the pieces.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You are aware how many difficulties or dramas could have been avoided had you only used different words. However, this is a time to look to the future with hope in your heart, not a moment for regret. What is done is done, and you should make sure that in future you'd do it differently.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Somebody at home definitely seems to be in a pushy mood and you may have to give way if trouble is to be avoided. There's a high probability of unexpected domestic chores and you should keep your list of handy repairmen ready. You may also need a friend to come in and fix up emotional upsets.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
There are certain times when challenging planetary aspects seem to throw the field wide open and this is one of them. You are not one to fear change and insecurity, so the current period should advance your interests. What you have to do is keep your eye on your long-term goals.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You appear to be trying hard to make everyone feel secure and comfortable, perhaps too hard. Of course partners and family members are quite capable of looking after themselves, but it suits them to have you running around after them. But, in my opinion, there's no reason why anyone should imagine that you're an unpaid servant.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Personal pressures can only make you more determined than ever to realise certain goals and ambitions. At the same time, you must be prepared to admit that flexibility and compromise are essential if you are to succeed. Watch the way the wind blows and then make your decision.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You are full of enthusiasm for converting others to your beliefs. Yet you must understand that your perception of the truth is far in advance of other people's, and that they may therefore fail to keep up with your thoughts. Let's face it, in many ways you're ahead of the field.

Man convicted for pouring acid on pretty wife

Accused felt she drew attention of men

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A city based court has convicted a 44-year-old auto driver to undergo rigorous life imprisonment and pay a fine of Rs 25,000 for pouring a can full of acid on his wife and killing her, as he was afraid that her beauty would wreck his married life.

On July 14, 2017, the accused, Chennegowda, had thrown acid on Manjula at their house in Sanyasipalya in Kempegowda Nagar. He suspected her fidelity and felt that she was drawing the attention of men because of her beauty. Unable to bear his harassment, she had even quit her job just four days before the incident. Manjula, who suffered burns on her face, hands, legs and stomach, succumbed to her injuries in Victoria Hospital burns ward two months later. Chennegowda was convicted by the 46th CCH Court. The couple had been married for around 21 years and had two children. The accused, who had gone absconding after the incident, was arrested five days later. One of his friends had helped him procure the acid.

"The victim had given her dying declaration in hospital. Her son had gone out to get milk and not seen who had thrown acid on his mother. His statements were also recorded as he was a major. The judgment was pronounced on Wednesday. The person who supplied acid to the accused has been made a witness in the case," said KS Latha, public prosecutor, 46th CCH court.

Due to frequent quarrels, Manjula had decided to leave her husband and stay separately with her children.

9-yr-old undergoes robotic cardiac surgery at city hosp

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

DOCTORS at Apollo Hospitals in the city have successfully conducted a robotic paediatric cardiac surgery on a 9-year-old boy diagnosed with Atrial Septal Defect (ASD), a hole in the heart from birth. While generally the condition is treated through an open heart surgery, this robot-assisted cardiac surgery is said to be a milestone as it is considered to be the first-of-its-kind in the country in the given pediatric age group.

The team of doctors led by Dr Sathyaki Nambala, chief surgeon, robotic and minimally invasive cardiac surgery, Apollo Hospitals, Bengaluru, performed the 60-minute surgery. The boy was discharged within 24 hours of the surgery. "But an open heart surgery would have taken 2- 3 hours and the patient would have required to stay in the hospital for 6-7 days, including 2-3 days in ICU," said a doctor.

Dr Sathyaki explained that the robotic cardiac surgery is performed through multiple robotic arms with the assistance of a camera inserted through 8 mm ports. The other major advantages of this kind of surgery is that there is no blood loss, miniaturised wounds (approximately 8 mm) and no rib spreading during surgery which makes the post-operative period absolutely painless. The requirement for painkillers after surgery is also very minimal, he said. ASD accounts for 10-15% of congenital heart diseases among newborns, the doctor added.

ASD can impact blood flow and cause threat to the functioning of both the heart and lungs in the long run if left untreated, Dr Sathyaki added.

HC quashes acquisition of land at BTM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday quashed the acquisition of 2 acres and 4 guntas of land in Hulimavu on Bannerghatta Road for formation of BTM Layout as the scheme for which the lands were acquired had lapsed. BDA had issued the final notification for the land acquisition 32 years ago.

"Since the possession of the property not having been taken from the petitioners and not having been utilised by the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA), Section 36 of the BDA Act is declared inapplicable to the land of the petitioners", the court said.

This apart, the court held that the allotment of land in question by the BDA in 2013 for construction of a police station and police quarters is illegal, as rules were not followed while allotting the land which was one among various lands acquired for the formation of BTM Layout.

"Even though it is contended that the civic amenity site has been allotted to the police department, I am of the considered opinion that the requirements under Section 3 of the Bangalore Development Authority (Allotment of Civic Amenity Sites) Rules, 1989 have not been followed", Justice Suraj Govindaraj said while allowing the petition filed by T Ravindra and others, the owners of the land bearing Survey No.80/1 in Bengaluru South Taluk.

The BDA issued preliminary notification in 1987 and final notification in 1990 for acquisition of the land.

2 PU GIRLS GO MISSING, COPS LAUNCH SEARCH

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

TWO girls studying in second-year Pre-University in a private college have gone missing for the past three days. The parents of the students approached High Grounds police to file an FIR late Wednesday night. Police said they had quarrelled with their families before leaving home. Efforts are on to trace the girls.

According to police, they are about 19 years old, and study at the same college in Vasanth Nagar. In the complaint, parents said they met often, even after college, for combined studies in their homes.

On Monday (July 25), one of the girls left home on the pretext of giving a textbook and didn't turn up till evening. When her father called up, she informed that she would be late. He raised his voice against her for coming home late, after which she disconnected the call. Later, he tried to contact her but she sent a message that she was going away with her friend and requested that they should not search for her.

The complainant then contacted the parents of her friend, who informed him that they did not return home for two days. Shocked, parents of both girls approached friends and relatives and when they failed to get any clues, they approached High Grounds police station.

Based on a complaint, police formed teams to trace the girls, who have switched off their mobiles. Police said alerts to all stations across the state, besides Kerala and Tamil Nadu, have also been sent.

BOMMAI UNVEILS DEVELOPMENT PLAN FOR STATE

New schemes to focus on self-employment, scholarships for poor students, free power; Rs 1,500 crore for developing storm water drains in Bengaluru

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AFTER cancelling his first anniversary celebrations, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday announced a few initiatives, including providing financial assistance and skills training to 10 lakh people to help them become self-employed. The government will also help them market their products, similar to Stree Shakti Self-Help Groups (SHGs).

Bommai told reporters that the initiatives will help people from all sections, including SC/ST, women, working classes, farmers and others, to strengthen them and take the state towards development.

To strengthen SHGs run by women in rural areas, the State government will give them financial aid of Rs 1.5 lakh per group under a special programme. There are 33,000 SHGs in Karnataka which have signed memorandums with banks. These groups will be given training and work, and also a market for their products, and will sign MoUs with aggregators. This will benefit 5lakh women across the state.

The government is planning to extend similar facilities to young men under the Swami Vivekananda Yuvashakti Yojane. Bommai thanked party workers and leaders, and appreciated his cabinet ministers' work to improve administration. He also lauded former chief minister BS Yediyurappa's work during the Covid crisis. Stating that the BJP government's administration is pro-public, Bommai said the Vidyanidhi scholarship programme for children of farmers has so far benefited 9.98 lakh students. The finance department has approved extension of this scheme to children of weavers, taxi drivers and fisherfolk. More than 8,000 classrooms will be constructed in various schools.

Among other schemes, poor SC/ST families would get 75 units of free power, and the direct benefit transfer (DBT) system was also launched. It will benefit about 25 lakh families and cost the State government Rs 700 crore, the CM said.

The government also decided to increase scholarships for SC/ST students, besides hostels and residential facilities. Health infrastructure will be enhanced to include 750 Primary Health Centres under the Amruth scheme.

He said Karnataka received the highest investment in the last quarter under Foreign Direct Investment, and is at first place on the NITI Aayog innovation list. At the recent World Economic Forum, Karnataka got Rs 1.15 lakh crore investment.

Bommai said that similar to the PM's 'aspiration district model' where the focus is on backward districts, the State government is stressing on aspiration taluks, and has identified 107 taluks for health and 94 for education.

Bengaluru's development is also on the priority list, with Rs 1,500 crore sanctioned for developing storm water drains.

PRAVEEN MURDER

AHEAD OF POLLS, PARTY WORKERS HOLD UP 'DHARMA' AS TOP PRIORITY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE resignation of BJP Yuva Morcha office-bearers, including those handling the party's social media handles across the state, has came as a setback for the saffron party ahead of the 2023 assembly polls in Karnataka.

They were expressing their anger against the leadership, following the murder of Praveen Nettaru in Sullia taluk of Dakshina Kannada district -- incidentally, BJP state president Nalinkumar Kateel's home turf and Lok Sabha constituency.

BJPYM national president and Bengaluru South LS member Tejasvi Surya had to intervene to control damage. He reportedly called his Chikkamagaluru counterpart Sandeep Aravinagandi, who had initiated the resignation spree, and gave a diktat to stop it.

BJPYM workers and office-bearers from various districts, including Vijayapura, Bagalkote, Dakshina Kannada, Chitradurga, Hubballi and Koppal, resigned after the murder to send out a message to party leaders and the government that they felt let down. Besides this, over 100 young leaders affirmed that they will dissociate themselves from handling social media for the party.

A house crowd gather outside the house of Praveen Nettaru in Bellare, Puttur, during the visit by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday

In Tumakuru, BJP workers staged a protest outside the Deputy Commissioner's office and presented a memorandum. BJP ST Morcha general secretary Rakesh T R couriered a copy of the Gita to Home Minister Arga Jnanendra, suggesting that he safeguard 'dharma' (righteousness) as Lord Krishna had preached to Arjuna.

On social media, some workers expressed skepticism over the Bommai cabinet's integrity in protecting the party ideology, as most of the ministers had their political roots in other parties.

"For us, dharma (religion) is of utmost priority, next comes the party," Rekha Shambu Patela of Hubballi mentioned in her resignation.

BJP state spokesman M G Mahesh on Thursday appealed to BJPYM office-bearers not to resign from their posts as the party will never let them down. "They need not resign emotionally, but realise that the murder of our worker is part of an international conspiracy to create conflict within us. The government has been making a strong case to ban the PFI and SDPI," he stated.

DK murder shows BJP failed on L&O front, says Rai

MANGALURU: Senior Congress leader and former minister B Ramanath Rai on Thursday blamed a few political leaders for disrupting peace in Dakshina Kannada by making communally provocative hate speeches that resulted in the murders of innocents like Praveen Nettur. All those who make provocative speeches are behind skirmishes and the victims are almost always from backward and minority communities, he said. "It looks like the government has completely ignored the Masood and Praveen murder cases. The government has failed to take swift action. Such murders occur when elections are near. It should provide Rs 25 lakh each to the families of Masood and Praveen. Action against those who provoke people to murder each other for money and power will help in maintaining peace in the district," he said. ENS

Facing anger, Bommai's big-ticket rally cancelled after Nadda's nudge

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

THE Basavaraj Bommai government was forced to cancel its big ticket rally that was scheduled for Thursday following the murder of BJP youth leader Praveen Nettaru that has angered party workers across the state.

BJP national president J P Nadda, who was supposed to be the chief guest at the event in Doddaballapur, advised Bommai against continuing with the rally. The Chief Minister then discussed the matter with BJP state president Nalin Kumar Kateel and his cabinet colleagues Dr K Sudhakar and MTB Nagaraj.

After these deliberations, Bommai called a hasty press conference at his residence on Wednesday midnight and announced cancellation of the Janothsava programme.

Though the rally was planned with an objective of strengthening the party's base in the Old Mysuru Region, the BJP think tank felt that it was not wise to go ahead with it when BJP workers are up in arms against the government for failing to protect them.

But Bommai stated that his conscience did not permit holding the rally at a time when a party worker was murdered. "After our party worker Praveen was killed on Tuesday, and party workers expressed their anguish, we had to take this decision," he said.

According to sources, the cancellation of the event came as a setback to ministers Sudhakar and MTB Nagaraj who had put all efforts to mobilise people ahead of the 2023 Assembly polls.

As the decision came at midnight, food was already prepared for over 20,000 people by then.

"The pulav and sweets were distributed to schools, hostels and orphanages in the vicinity of the venue," said Dheeraj Muniraju, a BJP leader.

The government had actually planned similar event and a series of rallies across the state, all of which may now get delayed due to the resent situation.

If all had gone well, Bommai would have also held deliberations with Nadda about cabinet expansion which was due for a long time. But the Chief Minister clarified that he is likely discuss this with the high command during his next visit to the national capital.

According to sources Bommai is likely to visit New Delhi on August 7 for a meeting of the Group of Ministers on GST rate rationalisation.

KSE calls for stringent laws

CHITRADURGA: BJP leader and former minister K S Eshwarappa said the state government should formulate stringent laws to prevent the murders of Hindus and BJP activists. Speaking to the media on Thursday, he admitted that there are lapses in the law and order situation because of which the murders are taking place. There is a need to take action on the lines of Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, who has effectively curbed communal violence in his state, he said. "We are not suggesting murder for murder. Leaders of the Muslim community should take steps to educate and sensitise their people to stop violence and take part in nation-building activities. This is the only solution. If Hindus also take up violence, it will lead to aggravation of the problem," he said. ENS

Cong targets Surya over viral video

B THIPPERUDRAPPA
@Chikkamagaluru

EVEN as the murder of BJP youth leader Praveen Nettaru has cast a dark shadow over the Basavaraj Bommai government, the opposition Congress is trying to cash in on the dissatisfaction among BJP workers who are up in arms against their own party.

The Congress received a shot in the arm in targeting the BJP after a video went viral on social media purportedly of BJP national Yuva Morcha president Tejaswi Surya telling the party's district president that if there was a Congress government in the state, "stones would have been pelted. But unfortunately, as it is their own government, the issue should not be allowed to blow up and should be settled within the party circle".

District Congress spokesperson Hiremagaluru Puttaswamy criticised Tejaswi remarks and said the party will file a case against him.

Praveen murder has also deeply upset BJP workers and Sangh Parivar members in Chikkamagaluru, which is close to the coastal region. There is wide condemnation of the BJP in social media too.

Close on the heels of the district BJP Yuva Morcha president and 30 other office-bearers tendering their resignation, the BJP Kalasa taluk Mahila Morcha secretary, Kalasa Yuva Morcha Unit president and BJP Zilla Madhyama Vibhag Pramuksh Preetam Hebbar resigned on Thursday.

Sources also said the BJP high command is mulling to change the Home Minister, which is held by Araga Jnanendra, and entrust the post to former Minister K S Eshwrappa after the cabinet rejig as a measure of damage control since elections are round the corner.

Meanwhile, the Bajrang Dal and other forums have called for a bandh in Kalasa and Koppa on Friday.

KUMARASWAMY HITS OUT AT MP

Mysuru: Former chief minister H D Kumaraswamy came down heavily on Bengaluru South MP Tejasvi Surya over his recent remarks after the murder of Praveen Nettaru. Speaking to reporters here on Thursday, the former chief minister said Surya had asked if the government can provide security for each and every common man. "We are not asking for a gunman for every citizen, but demanding good administration and proper law and order." During the 2016 Uttar Pradesh elections, the Muzzafarnagar incident claimed lives of many following which the BJP assumed power, he said and alleged that by sowing hatred, the BJP tries to assume power whenever possible. ENS

Hindu forums seeks suspension of cops for caning at funeral

MANGALURU: The Vishwa Hindu Parishad and Bajrang Dal on Thursday demanded that the government suspend the police officers who had ordered caning of Hindutva activists during the funeral procession of Praveen Nettaru on Wednesday. Sunil K R, Karnataka South convenor of Bajrang Dal, said, "The lathicharge is unacceptable. The officers involved in this should be suspended. Praveen's murder was pre-planned. The police department has failed to crack the case even after two days. The case must be investigated by a Special Investigation Team." Meanwhile, Bajrang Dal has urged all taluk units of the organisation to conduct condolence meetings for Praveen. "His death is an irreplaceable loss to society," he said. ENS

17 going on 18? You can enrol on voter list now

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

TURNING 18 and raring to exercise your franchise? You don't need to wait for that magic day to register, but can apply well in advance.

On an average, about 20 lakh voters become eligible to vote in Karnataka every year, but many don't because they don't register.

The State has about 5.2 crore voters, and the number could go up by 20 lakh before elections in May 2023.

Chief Electoral Officer of Karnataka Manoj Kumar Meena said they want to change all that, starting with encouraging teenagers to apply even before they turn 18. Meena has been holding meetings to instruct his team to ensure that everyone is registered.

Meena told TNIE, "A system has been put in place to ensure that all eligible persons register and no one suffers because they were not enrolled. The enrolment forms have been revised and made user-friendly."

The Election Commission also brought in many changes to ensure no one is left out, Meena said. It may be recalled that opposition parties have complained that names of those belonging to their support groups had been removed from the voter list, but this time one can check if their names are on the list, and ensure that if some inadvertent deletion has taken place, the names are restored.

Another common complaint, mainly from the metros, is that voters change their addresses and queue up to vote at the wrong voting booth.

Meena said, "This problem can be corrected instantly. Just dial 1950 or download the voter helpline app or get in touch with the election authorities and make corrections online," he explained. If not done in a fortnight, the applicants can contact the department officers.

The exercise of linking Aadhaar with voter identity cards will begin, and applicants can get help from the department. Meena said electoral rolls are dynamic and every year, names are added. "Those who wish to change particulars have to fill up Form 6, like deletion of name in case of death, or just Form 7. If there is a change in personal details like address, they must fill up Form 8. The forms have been simplified and people are encouraged to ensure they are fille online.

With just eight months left for the election notification, all three parties have started their sprint to the finish line, to get the highest number of seats. But the Election Commission has to ensure that the maximum number of voters cast their vote.

Suspect waited on road for 30 mins

POLICE have gathered CCTV footage near Praveen's chicken shop in Bellare which shows a person suspiciously moving around. The footage shows the suspect waiting on the roadside on a bike for about 30 minutes and riding towards the chicken shop just before the murder took place.

The arrested duo belonging to villages that are close to Praveen's native place Nettaru has furthered deepened the suspicion that the murder could have been carried out to avenge the murder of Masood. Masood, a 18-year-old from Kasaragod was assaulted by a group of six youths in Bellare on July 19 and he succumbed to injuries a day later in a Mangaluru hospital.

Meanwhile, CM Bommai had to face the wrath of locals after he came out after visiting Praveen's family. The Hindutva activists shouted slogans seeking justice for Praveen. They also said that if the government is not able to punish the culprits, then they will be forced to take law into their hands.

Meanwhile. Mangaluru city police commissioner N Shashi Kumar said the motive behind the murder is still not clear. Prohibitory orders have been clamped in Suratkal, Panamburu, Mulky and Bajpe police stations till Saturday morning. Liquor shops in these limits will be shut on Friday.

Karnataka police working efficiently, says Bommai

IN the last ten years, these communal forces have become more active. Karnataka police are efficient enough and have cracked down on terrorist organisations and sleeper cells and sent them to Tihar jail with the help of National Investigation Agency (NIA). "Whether it is DJ Halli riots, Hubballi violence or Mangaluru incidents, our police are working efficiently." he said. On the Praveen Nettaru murder case, the CM said they have formed five teams which will also visit Kerala.

"We will crack this case the way we nabbed the accused in Harsha murder case," the CM said and added that the government does not compromise on maintaining law and order. "I appeal to the people to be calm," he added. When asked about banning organisations like Popular Front of India (PFI), the CM said there are certain organisations trying to disturb social harmony. "This is a challenge. These outfits even tried to spread the hijab case, which started with five students at a Udupi college, to the entire state. We controlled them and it went to the court which gave a decision in favour of the state government. Azan issue was also sorted out. The Union government has to ban PFI or SDPI. We have already sent a report and documents to the Centre. The process has begun. Banning has to be done across the country" he added.

Ours is 100/100 government: CM

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said Opposition leader Siddaramaiah gave zero marks to the government's performance but people gave 100% marks. "This means ours is 100/100 government" the CM said. He also defended his ministers saying no one has given any provocative statement.

12 girls brought from Raj by trust in Kerala, priest held

ENS @Kozhikode

REV Jacob Varghese, 55, director of the Karunabhavan Charitable Trust, Perumbavoor, and Independent Pentecostal Church priest, was arrested for allegedly transporting minor girls from Rajasthan to Ernakulam illegally. On Wednesday, 12 girls who were being brought on the Okha-Ernakulam Express were intercepted at the Kozhikode railway station by the railway protection force and railway police.

Six adults were along with the minor girls on the train. Four of them are said to be parents of two girls. The team had two Rajasthan-based youths — Lokesh Kumar, 29, and Shyam Lal, 25. Other passengers grew suspicious when the youths arrived at the railway station with the girls and informed the police. The Kozhikode railway police registered a case of human trafficking under Section 370 of IPC and arrested both Lokesh Kumar and Shyam Lal. The police received information about the priest from the youths.

During interrogation, the parents and youths who were present with the girls said they were going to the Karuna Charitable Trust in Perumbavoor, the railway police said. Kali reserve a model for others in tiger census

Reserve follows protocols laid down by NTCA, WII, say officials

AMIT S UPADHYE @Hubballi

THE only tiger protection area in North Karnataka, the Kali Tiger Reserve has become a model reserve for many who are finding it difficult to carry out tiger counting in the country. The National Tiger Conservation Authority (NTCA) and the Wildlife Institute of India (WII) have laid down protocols for tiger counting and the Kali reserve has been following it in the right spirit, say forest officials.

The Kali Tiger Reserve in Uttara Kannada district is a beautiful forest landscape and a prime tourist destination. In the previous census conducted in 2018, the tiger population here was 12. Though the forest heads had hoped for more numbers of tigers, the numbers were below than what was expected. This year, special emphasis was given for the camera trap experiment under capture-and-recapture method. This has helped the reserve to arrive at accurate numbers.

The census was also conducted in other forest areas of Uttara Kannada besides the Kali Tiger Reserve. According to the internal assessment, there are 30 tigers in the district of which 90% are in the Kali reserve. Tigers have also been reported from Yellapur, Sirsi, and Haliyal division.

"WII and NTCA have laid down the protocols for tiger counting and we have followed it on the ground. For instance, the use of rangefinder in line transacts for herbivore surveys was made mandatory for volunteers. If you need accurate figures of tigers one has to follow the methodology correctly," said a forest official part of the census.

Senior officials of the Karnataka Forest Department say that Karnataka has a healthy population of tigers. "Karnataka is part of the most important tiger landscape — Nilgiri Biosphere — along with Kerala and Tamil Nadu. Similarly, Kali Tiger Reserve is turning into a source population site for several animals which are dispersing to the wildlife areas attached to it. The entire landscape stretching from Bhimghad National Park in Belagavi to Bhagawan Mahaveer Wildlife Sanctuary on the other end, the Kali is an important landscape for tigers. We are expecting a steady rise in numbers of tigers in Kali after several interior villages were relocated," added an official.

KERALA GOVT'S PERILOUS POLITICS OF POPULISM

Legislators and ministers in Kerala have been promised a pay hike. Every family in the state is to get an Onam gift hamper—at the cost of ₹425 crore to the exchequer. If the largesse points to a fiscal surplus, think again. Only last week, finance minister K N Balagopal informed the assembly that the estimated revenue shortfall this fiscal is a whopping ₹23,000 crore. The account is in the red owing to a lowered net borrowing ceiling, withdrawal of GST compensation and the cut in revenue deficit grant.

This is over and above the already existing debt burden. The state may need at least ₹8,000 crore for paying salary, pension, and welfare pension ahead of Onam in the first week of September. The distribution of salaries and pensions to the employees of the state-owned public transport company, KSRTC, has been in disarray for the last few months. Social security pension to certain sections is pending. Contractors are running from pillar to post to get their bills cleared.

In such a dire economic atmosphere, the cabinet appointed a commission to recommend a wage hike for MLAs and ministers. The fact that the last pay revision was effected only four years ago and floods and the Covid pandemic marred the years that followed makes the decision all the more improper. Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan's promise of Onam kits to all is another example of politics of populism at the cost of financial health.

When the sensible thing to do is to tighten purse strings and adopt stringent austerity measures, the government has been busy either denying the existence of a crisis or blaming the Centre for all the ills. A government that has to keep borrowing to pay salaries, pension, and even interest on loans cannot afford the luxury of indulging in populism. Politics that can push the state into penury is dangerous. The government must push politics and populism aside if it is concerned about the people's welfare. It has to cut expenses and mobilise additional sources of revenue urgently.

Unemployment, inflation, climate change, communalism or gender and caste inequities. Any of these pressing issues might be top of the mind for most people in India today, firing them up to demand better. Yet, the hot button topic of the week was that an actor had flaunted his unclad posterior in a photo shoot with an American publication. In what can only be described as surrealist high-farce, a lawyer, who had filed an FIR against Bollywood star Ranveer Singh for his nude photo shoot, said with a shockingly straight face that Singh's bum was a "national issue". Elsewhere, a "scandalised" outfit performed the yeoman's service of printing out posters of the images of Singh in the altogether, displaying them publicly to run a "clothes donation drive" for the actor, ostensibly while showing the uninformed masses the pictures so they could be rightly horrified.

One could wheel out the done-to-death argument that India has a fine tradition of celebrating nude bodies in art, but surely those mortally offended by Singh's nude photoshoot know this. Think of the children on the internet; they cry! Think of the women whose modesty is outraged by the images these moralists have helpfully printed and put up on street corners.

Yet two things are worth a more critical examination. First, why does male nudity, in the form that invites an objectifying gaze, bother us more than any amount of objectification of the cis-female form? The latter is but part and parcel of popular culture. The discomfort that the patriarchy experiences when the gaze is reversed on to men should force us to ask why, and if the act of objectification is problematic due to its dehumanising effect, should we not question our comfort with the ceaseless objectification of women? Second is the more prosaic question of why police in India, overworked as they are to the point they have been known to put off complainants of serious crimes, especially the marginalised, continue to accept and register FIRs in cases such as this. On the bright side, the entire kerfuffle might best be enjoyed as another showcase for India's talented meme-masters, who have created monuments of hilarity on the back of Ranveer Singh's exposed behind.

WIN PASMANDA HEARTS BEFORE SEEKING VOTES

FAISAL C K

Independent researcher interested in constitutional law and political philosophy

SOUMYADIP SINHA

In the recently held national executive of the BJP at Hyderabad, Prime Minister Narendra Modi reportedly urged the party functionaries to reach out to deprived and downtrodden sections in non-Hindu communities. It is a subtle message to focus on segments such as Pasmanda Muslims in the Hindi heartland. They underscored their electoral importance in the recently-held by-elections to some assembly and parliamentary constituencies in Uttar Pradesh. In the Muslim-majority seats of Rampur and Azamgarh, Pasmanda Muslims played a crucial role in ensuring the BJP's victory by voting for it in substantial numbers. The BJP wants to bring the Pasmanda community into its fold to scuttle the Opposition's chances of consolidating minority votes in the 2024 Lok Sabha election.

Pasmanda is a Persian term that means the 'ones left behind' used to describe depressed castes among the Muslims. They constitute the lion's share of India's Muslim population.

Before vivisecting the BJP's new social engineering move, one must briefly analyse the anatomy of the caste system prevailing among Indian Muslims. The significant elements of a caste are endogamy, occupational specialisation, hierarchical order, and restrictions on social intercourse and commensality. All of these apply to Muslim castes as well. In his Muslims in India: Caste Affinity and Social Boundaries of Backwardness, Nadeem Hasnain wrote that while Islam may not have caste or caste-like groupings, the Indian Muslims do have caste. Using evidence from decennial censuses, Ghuas Ansari opined in 1959 that Muslims in India were divided into three broad social groups—the Ashraf (nobles), Ajlaf (lowly), and Arzal (excluded). Ajlafs and Arzals are collectively called Pasmandas.

The socio-political interests of Pasmandas have always been distinct from and conflicting with the elite Ashrafi Muslims. Pasmanda Muslims were at loggerheads with the Ashrafis represented by the All-India Muslim League in colonial India. The All-India Momin Conference, which represented socially backward Pasmanda Muslims, especially weavers, was a voice of the oppressed and the downtrodden amongst the Muslim masses in pre-independent India. It resisted the oppression which was meted out to them by Ashrafi Muslims. The Conference was a part of the Azad Muslims' Conference led by Allah Baksh Soomro, which opposed the Muslim League's Two-Nation Theory and the proposal for the partition of India.

The Momin Conference advocated Hindu-Muslim unity for a joint struggle for freedom. Zaheeruddin, president of the Conference, stated: "The Pakistan scheme is a mirage which is taking us towards destruction...we should not forget that a Muslim farmer in Punjab has more in common with a Hindu farmer than with a Muslim from outside". The Conference feared that the creation of Pakistan with the Muslim League as the ruling party, which represented only the interests of Ashrafs, would further aggravate the sorry state of Pasmandas. Unfortunately, the voice of Pasmandas went unheard as the franchise to legislatures was limited to the wealthy class, and Pasmandas were under-represented in legislatures.

The Pasmanda Muslim Mahaz, founded by Ali Anwar Ansari in 1998 in Bihar, spearheads Pasmanda politics in the Hindi Belt. The Pasmanda Muslim Mahaz is a loose coalition of social reform organisations bringing awareness to the plight of the Pasmanda Muslims and their complete neglect and persecution by the upper-class Ashraf Muslims in India. The Mahaz advocates for the Pasmanda Muslim cause concerning personal law, reservation and electoral politics.

The BJP has successfully brought many social classes who recently maintained some distance from the party into its fold. Dalits of Uttar Pradesh, sad with the fall and decline of the Bahujan Samaj Party, have almost en masse embraced the BJP. "Dalits, tribals and Muslims are the groups on which the RSS works hard. The big change we have witnessed in recent years is the RSS's outreach to Dalits through its samajik samrasta (social harmony) campaign. A "more accommodative stance towards Dr B R Ambedkar", says Badri Narayan in his Republic of Hindutva: How the Sangh Is Reshaping Indian Democracy (2021). Badri Narayan observes that the RSS is morphing daily, and the image the opposition parties are attacking is much older and has become obsolete. The queen of the Sangh hive, the RSS, is becoming more inclusive and accommodative.

> The socio-political interests of Pasmandas have always been distinct from and conflicting with the elite Ashrafi Muslims. Pasmanda Muslims were at loggerheads with the Ashrafis represented by the All-India Muslim League in colonial India

The BJP has won significant acceptance among the Muslim electorate over the last decade. In his New BJP: Modi and the Making of the World's Largest Political Party (2022), author Nalin Mehta points out: "There are nineteen Lok Sabha seats in the Hindi heartland where over 30 per cent of voters happen to be Muslim. For our purpose here, let's call them Muslim-significant seats. Of these, the BJP won only five seats (19.6 per cent of votes) in 2009, fourteen (41.6 per cent) in 2014 and seven (39.6 per cent) in 2019. It would imply that its support base in these Muslim-significant seats declined in 2019. However, when we look at vote shares, it is clear that the party grew much deeper roots in these seats during the past decade."

Mehta says that the BJP is no longer an upper-caste party and the new BJP is a differently oriented caste organism altogether. It also created a new model of political mobilisation around labharthees (beneficiaries) in a way that had not been done in north India before. He observes: "Together, resetting the caste matrix, welfare politics and Hindutva created a new BJP model of politics. It turned the party into a party of the poor and transformed it into the dominant pole of politics in rural India, the default party of the village".

Several social welfare initiatives of the BJP government at the Centre have catered to the basic needs of the downtrodden sections of the population, including Pasmanda Muslims. The new BJP can comfortably accommodate Pasmanda Muslims in its fold as they are labharthees of the new model of politics. Pasmandas depend on low-income generating professions like butchery, weaving, tailoring etc. If the BJP provides them facilities of skill-upgradation, socio-economic stability, protection from communal violence etc., the induction of Pasmandas into the BJP fold would create a symbiotic ecosystem for Pasmandas and the BJP. However, the BJP has to win their hearts before they catch their votes.

NEP 2020 HOLISTIC EDUCATION TO REBOOT SOCIETY

DR SUBHAS SARKAR

Union Minister of State for Education

On a recent visit to the easternmost part of our nation in the hilly region of Longding in Arunachal Pradesh, the land of the dawn-lit mountains, I had the good fortune of interacting with the young children of Kendriya Vidyalaya, which brought immense joy to me. Such interactions reinforce my belief that the future of India is in the right hands.

One particular reply by a girl student to my question on her future aspirations struck me. She said that when she grows up, she will work to solve the water crisis in the Longding district. She further added that she would emphasise rainwater harvesting and create structures that will help in storing rainwater for future use. This reply has many connotations, from the purity of thinking to the spirit of giving back to society and become a part of the solution.

This is how we have reimagined our education system to be. Our young generation should not only learn the subject but also teach and nurture the feeling of giving back to society and become change agents instead of always cribbing about the problem.

With this as one of the guiding principles, National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 was introduced under the dynamic leadership of our Prime Minister, Narendra Modi. Its guiding philosophy aims to nurture, inspire, influence, and groom children.

Many deliberations took place after the policy's launch, and various seminars, workshops, webinars, and panel discussions were done across the nation to discuss the nuances of the policy. The discussions centred on how NEP should benefit the entire country and that education should become a tool of empowerment of the citizenry and an instrument to strengthen the nation-building process.

Whenever I go through the NEP 2020 document, better interpretations and meanings emerge every time. While reading the policy, I realised its emphasis is on Holistic Education. During my visit to different institutions in the past few months, I felt there is a need for a significant increase in macro and micro-actions in the realisation of holistic education amongst our faculties and students.

The purpose of holistic education is not only to prepare students for academic success but also to enable them to learn the challenges of living as a whole. It is more than the whole student's education and addresses the broadest development of the entire person at the cognitive and affective levels.

> Holistic education prepares a student for lifelong learning. The educational focus moves toward the life skills, attitudes, and personal awareness the student will need in an increasingly complex world. The holistic approach to education develops a learner's social and academic maturity to accept life's challenges, build their understanding, and learn from their errors

Holistic education prepares a student for lifelong learning. The educational focus moves toward the life skills, attitudes, and personal awareness the student will need in an increasingly complex world. The holistic approach to education develops a learner's social and academic maturity to accept life's challenges, build their understanding, and learn from their errors.

The ancient education system concentrated on the all-round development of the individual by taking care of both the inner and the outer self. It emphasised values such as modesty, truthfulness, discipline, self-reliance, and respect for all creations. Students were taught to appreciate the balance between human beings and nature.

We also need to teach our young generations about the contributions of ancient India so that they not only appreciate and learn about the past but also have a future-oriented approach rooted in traditional wisdom.

The inclusion of Indian Knowledge Systems at each and every level is the need of the hour. Various Institutes have started centres related to Indian Knowledge Systems, and many others are joining the league.

Further, NEP 2020 has a vision that will lead the students to return to their society and pay back to their society, parents, village, district, state, and nation. This reminds me of Kaviguru Rabindranath Tagore's poetry, 'Maatir buker maajhe':

"Maatir buker maajhe bondi je jal miliye thaake

Maati paay na paay na, maati paay na taake..."

In the poem and in nature, water comes back to the Earth in the form of rain after traversing a path.

There is a need to provide that kind of Holistic Education as described by Gurudev so that students will feel like coming back to their society and pay back to their society, parents, village, district, and state. In this context, Prime Minister Narendra Modi has said that a Holistic education system is vital for national transformation.

Therefore, "Holistic Education is the Soul of National Education Policy 2020." Our efforts to create Atmanirbhar Bharat and New India will be realised by implementing NEP 2020 in its true spirit as our government envisioned.

Our Constitution

This is with reference to the column The future of the Indian Constitution (July 28). The writer is undoubtedly very well-versed with constitutional matters. I agree with his statements about how majoritarianism can turn tyrannical at any point in time. I also second his thoughts that "many apprehend that we are turning into an electoral, ethnic autocracy".

Raphael Emmanuel, Cheranalloor

RaGa's claims

Apropos of ED questions Sonia for 6 hours, next round today (July 27). Rahul Gandhi alleged that India is a police state and that Prime Minister Narendra Modi is a king. Personal accusations in this fashion will not create any sympathy. The National Herald money laundering case for Sonia Gandhi and the others is not something new. Rahul should accompany Sonia Gandhi to face the ED boldly to be free from the charges if he really sees some merit in his case.

Safe drinking water

Apropos of Efficient water management can avert looming crisis (July 28). People lost their lives because the filtration unit hadn't been cleaned for five years. Supplying safe drinking water is the duty of municipal authorities. If this is not done, it puts the lives of citizens at risk. Negligent officials must be punished severely for this blunder. Maybe the government should start organising sessions for public servants to ensure that they perform their public duties efficiently.

Kantamsetti Lakshman Rao, Seethammadhara

Joint efforts

Apropos of the editorial Efficient water management can avert looming crisis (July 28). Both authorities and the people need to work together to tackle this problem. After all, there are lives at stake here. Rather than focusing on social, political and religious differences, this basic civic necessity is the need of the hour.

Jayashree Thampi, Thiruvananthapuram

Cooperative mess

It was very sad to read the news Karuvannur Cooperative Bank scam: Family stages protest (July 28). An elderly woman died because the bank authorities delayed returning her money. Although she had deposited ₹30 lakh, she was unable to withdraw it. This can happen to anybody. It is very difficult to trust cooperative banks due to their lack of credibility.

M Haneef, Kottayam

Census delay

Apropos of Census delay to hit policies: Experts (July 28). While it is disappointing that the 2021 Census is postponed, the delay is not likely to hit government programmes seriously as the official population projections could be used provisionally for urgent matters. For example, sample selection for surveys on consumption could be made by adopting area sampling using GIS.

INDIAN Army Chief General M K Pande on Thursday called for indiginisation of the defence equipment and ammunition. He stressed that the geostrategic security environment has witnessed significant changes in recent times, leading to recalibration of the established world order thus self-sufficiency is a "strategic imperative".

Speaking at an event, General Pande said, "India's security concerns emanate from the geopolitical dynamics at both — global as well as the regional level. These include the ongoing Russia-Ukraine conflict as well as the instability and the political uncertainty that we see in our immediate neighbourhood."

Army Chief General Manoj Pande addresses AMMO India 2022' conference in New Delhi on Thursday

Our interests are best served by being self-reliant especially in defence productions. We cannot fight and win future wars on borrowed technology, added the Army Chief while addressing the 'AMMO India 2022' conference, jointly organised by the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry and the Centre for Joint Warfare Studies.

Pointing towards the recent push towards indigenization, Gen. Pande said, "Our external dependence on armaments and ammunitions has been a matter of concern and reversing of this trend in recent years has been quite encouraging."

The contemporary security environment and changing character of war requires and mandates that our armed forces be prepared to handle a wide spectrum of challenges both in the conventional and sub-conventional domains.

Army Chief pointed to the pandemic and standoff with the Chinese PLA along the Line of Actual Control in Eastern Ladakh as watershed events.

The pandemic has been a major watershed event of our time during which the global supply chains were majorly disrupted and it has set out a new normal the way we do business now, Gen. Pande said.

The period also witnessed the standoff on our northern borders and these twin conditions have adequately brought home and reinforced the fact that self sufficiency in the defence requirements is now more than ever before, he added.

Talking about the discussions held during the two day event, the Army Chief said, "The details discussed between various stakeholders will help India in taking forward the indigenous productions of the ammunition."

UNSC slams attack on UN Mission where 2 BSF men died

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

THE United Nations Security Council (UNSC) has condemned the attack on the UN mission in Congo in which two Indian peacekeepers were killed by a mob on July 26.

The Indian peacekeepers were identified as BSF Head Constables Shishupal Singh and Sanwala Ram Vishnoi.

"The members of the Security Council strongly condemned the recent attacks on the United Nations Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (MONUSCO) in North Kivu. The deliberate attacks targeting peacekeepers may be considered war crimes under the international law," said the UNSC statement, tabled by India and France.

The UNSC has also urged the Congolese authorities to investigate the assault in which some peacekeepers and civilians were also injured.

India, currently a non-permanent member of the Council and among the largest troop contributing country to the UN peacekeeping missions, played a very active role in bringing the 15 Council members together and ensuring that a strongly worded statement goes out condemning the attack. UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres has expressed his deepest condolences to the families of the fallen peacekeepers, as well as to the governments and the people of India and Morocco.

At the MONUSCO Butembo base, violent attackers snatched weapons from Congolese police and fired upon the uniformed personnel.

2 AAP MPs among 3 suspended from RS

RICHA SHARMA @ New Delhi

THREE more Rajya Sabha MPs were suspended on Thursday for their unruly behaviour for the rest of the week, taking the total to 23. The suspended MPs have continued with their 50-hour relay protest outside the two Houses.

As soon as the House met, the MPs rushed to the well of the House with placards. They were named by Rajya Sabha Deputy Chairman Harivansh. Soon, Minister of State for Parliamentary Affairs V Muraleedharan moved a motion to suspend the three members from the House for the remainder of the week. The motion was passed by a voice vote. The suspended MPs, however, did not leave the House, leading to repeated adjournments. AAP MPs said they wanted to discuss the Gujarat hooch tragedy in the House.

The suspended MPs include AAP's Sushil Kumar Gupta and Sandeep Kumar Pathak besides Independent, Ajit Kumar Bhuyan. The MPs joined the protesting members sitting at the Gandhi statue protesting their suspension and demanding discussion on price rise.

The suspended MPs include seven from the TMC, six from DMK, three from TRS, two from CPI-M, one from CPI and three from AAP and one Independent. Four Congress MPs from Lok Sabha have already been suspended.

"Our only fault was that we were raising the issue pertaining to the death of people in Gujarat due to consumption of spurious liquor," Pathak said after their suspension.

The AAP MP, who had recently been elected to the Rajya Sabha from Punjab, alleged that more than 75 people had died after consuming spurious liquor in Gujarat and many others are still sick requiring treatment. "The state BJP government has concealed the actual figures," he said. "Just to keep the death count low, bodies of those dying in hospitals are being declared unclaimed. Many people, who had consumed spurious liquor are still coming to hospitals but they are not being admitted," said Pathak.

The Gujarat government had no moral right to continue, Pathak demanded. "It is unfortunate that people have sent so many BJP leaders to Parliament but none of them cares. Leave aside raising the people's voice here, none of them has any feeling of pain for those dying and suffering in Gujarat," he said.

The AAP MP, who is incharge of party's political affairs in poll-bound Gujarat, said his suspension and that of Gupta from Rajya Sabha would not stop him and the party leaders from standing by the people and raising their voice. The suspended Rajya Sabha members on Wednesday started a 50-hour relay protest inside the Parliament complex, with sources saying the Opposition declined the Chairman's offer that they express regret over their members' behaviour in the House to get the suspension revoked.

They were later joined by four Congress MPs who have also been suspended from Lok Sabha for the remainder of the monsoon session.

AAP MP Singh also composed a parody of a popular yesteryear's song which loosely translates to him imagining "a world without Modi and Shah, where people get food and children get milk." The opposition has demanded a discussion on price rise in both Houses of Parliament.

MEA expresses 'deep concern' over Myanmar executions

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

The Myanmar junta's move to carry out execution of four political prisoners has met with strong objection by international community. However, India has so far said it is concerned about the situation in Myanmar. "We have noted the news with deep concern. As a friend of the people of Myanmar we will continue to support return of democracy and we would like the rule of law and democratic process to be upheld," according to the Ministry of External Affairs.

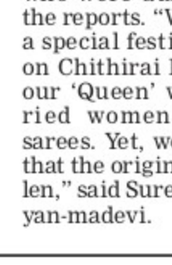
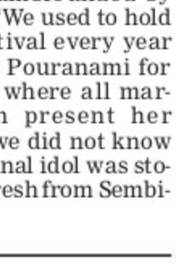
According to experts, Myanmar's army role will be crucial to any democratic transition.





HIV infections down in India but up in Asia-Pacific region: UNAIDS report

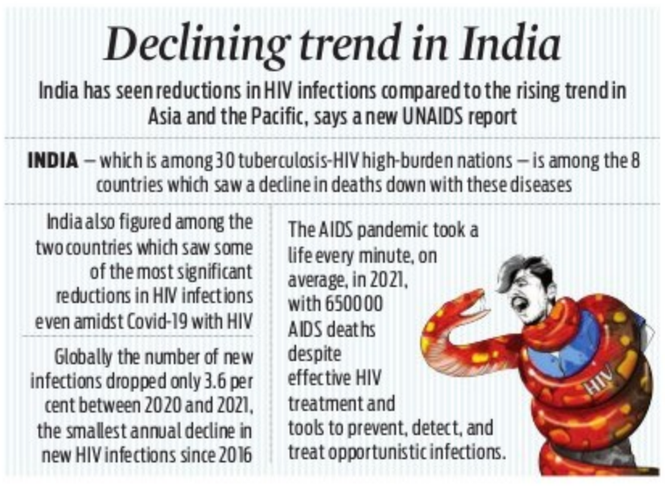
EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

INDIA has seen reductions in HIV infections compared to the rising trend in Asia and the Pacific, said a new report by UNAIDS.

The campaign against HIV, however, has been hit hard globally in the last two years by the Covid pandemic and other global crises because of resource crunch, said the report In Danger, launched ahead of the International AIDS Conference in Montreal, Canada.

It said that India - which is among 30 tuberculosis-HIV high-burden nations - is among the eight countries which saw a decline in tuberculosis-related deaths among people living with HIV.

India also figured among the two countries which saw some of the most significant reductions in HIV infections even amidst Covid-19 and other crises, said the report released Wednesday night.



However, the report said that India saw an 8 percent decline in providing TB preventive therapy to people living with HIV in 2019 and 2020. The two other countries were South Africa and the United Republic of Tanzania, which saw treatment fall by 30 per cent.

"These data show the global AIDS response in severe danger. If we are not making rapid progress, we are losing ground as the pandemic thrives amidst COVID-19, mass displacement, and other crises. Let us remember the millions of preventable deaths we are trying to stop," said UNAIDS Executive Director Winnie Byanyima.

TN Idol Wing finds ancient idol of Chola queen stolen before 1929 in US

ANTONY FERNANDO @ Chennai

TAMIL Nadu Idol Wing CID has traced a 1,000-year-old idol of a Chola queen Sembiyan Mahadevi, which was stolen from Sri Kailasanathaswamy Temple of Sembiyanmadevi village, at a museum in the United States. Steps have been initiated to bring back the idol. The Idol Wing CID identified the three-and-a-half-foot tall 10th century idol at Freer Gallery of Arts in Washington DC. "We are working to bring back the idol to our country at the earliest and restore it to temple under UNESCO treaty," said K Jayanth Murali, DGP of Tamil Nadu Idol Wing CID.

Sembiyan Mahadevi was a title conferred to queens of Chola kings. The most prominent of them was the wife of Gandaraditya Chola, mother of Utthama Chola and grand-aunt of Rajaraja Chola I. She had built several Saivite temples in and around the delta region, including Sri Kailasanathaswamy Temple in Nagapattinam district. The village was named after her.

Officials said unknown persons had stolen the idol sometime before 1929. Freer Gallery of Art purchased it from archaeologist Hagop Kevorkian for an undisclosed price in 1929. Hagop Kevorkian died in 1962. The Idol Wing CID is investigating how Hagop Kevorkian got hold of the idol.

Investigation began after advocate E Rajendran complained at Velankanni police station in 2018 about the theft of the idol. He claimed to have visited Freer Gallery of Arts in 2015 and seeing the idol. In his complaint, he alleged the idol was stolen around 1958 which was disputed by the Idol Wing. According to the Idol Wing CID, Rajendran's complaint implied that the HR&CE Department was hand-in-glove with persons who stole the idol. "We know the idol was stolen before 1929 and not in 1958. Since the HR&CE Department did not exist around 1929, we are ruling out its involvement," Jayanth Murali said. The Idol Wing CID said the stone idol in the shrine at Kailasanathaswamy temple was made after the theft of the original idol.

TNIE spoke to Sembiyanmadevi residents, most of who were dumbfounded by the reports. "We used to hold a special festival every year on Chithirai Pouranami for our 'Queen' where all married women present her sarees. Yet, we did not know that the original idol was stolen," said Suresh from Sembiyan-madevi.

Was told not to enter rooms with hidden cash: Arpita

Money brought in by Partha Chatterjee's men, Arpita Mukherjee tells ED; total of ₹49.8 crore cash found at her two apartments so far

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

HOURS after ₹27.9 crore in cash was found from her second apartment at Baranagar in North 24-Parganas in Bengal, Arpita Mukherjee on Thursday told Enforcement Directorate (ED) officials that the money was brought by the Trinamool Congress heavyweight Partha Chatterjee's men, sources in the central agency said.

A total of ₹49.8 crore cash has been found at her two apartments so far. Six days ago, the central agency recovered ₹21.9 crore in cash, besides gold jewellery and foreign currencies from her south Kolkata flat. Recovery of the huge volume of cash in the past six days is suspected to be proceeds of crime of alleged recruitment scam in schools.

Sources in the investigative agency said Arpita, a model and actor, revealed that she was told not to enter the rooms where the money was kept. "His (Chatterjee's) men used to visit my apartments with cash. They used to keep them inside the rooms. I had clear instructions not to enter the rooms were the money was stashed," Arpita reportedly told the investigators.

The ED is yet to interrogate Chatterjee and Arpita, his close aide, face-to-face.

During the 24-hour raid, ED officials found cash totalling to ₹27.9 crore stashed in Arpita's second apartment. "Other than the wardrobes in the bedrooms, the cash in denominations of ₹2,000 and ₹500 currency notes was also found in the washrooms. We also recovered gold jewellery and bars weighing 6 kg," said an ED official.

The central agency also came to know about Arpita's two others apartments in Chinar Park in North 24-Parganas and Nayabad in Salt Lake, where searches are currently taking place.

BJP national vice-president Dilip Ghosh has raised an allegation, saying TMC MP Saugata Roy used to visit Arpita's apartment at Baranagar frequently. "Saugata Roy used to visit Arpita's apartment frequently. He is also involved in the scam," alleged Ghosh.

Roy, however, refuted the allegation, saying he would quit politics and resign from his MP post if Ghosh can prove his charges. "This is a baseless allegation. The area falls under my Lok Sabha constituency and I have an office in the housing complex. It is natural to visit my office. But I never visited Arpita's apartment. If Ghosh can prove his allegation, I will quit politics and also resign as MP," said Roy.

Thieves strike at Arpita's farmhouse

A theft took place at a farmhouse, which is said to be owned by Arpita Mukherjee, in Baruipur on the southern fringes of Kolkata. Neighbours told police that they woke up on hearing the sound of breaking locks. "They spotted four men. One of them threatened them with dire consequences. The neighbours didn't muster the courage to raise an alarm. They said they saw the men leaving the house with three gunny bags," said a local police officer. The ED has found papers related to properties and shell companies in the name of Arpita.

After wheat & flour, now prices of maida soar

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

THE prices of maida (refined wheat flour) are soaring due to escalating international prices following the Ukraine conflict. The result is bakery products such as bread and biscuits could be costlier soon.

Sources said the price of wheat has touched ₹2,350 per quintal in Punjab from ₹2,260 last month. The flour millers believe that sellers would not step in the market until prices touch around ₹2,450. This has affected the maida price, which hovers around ₹2,800 per quintal in Punjab against ₹2,500 a month before.

The market buzz is that at Kandla port in Gujarat, from where maida is traded abroad, the price has touched around ₹3,000 per quintal with rumours of it becoming even more costly in the coming days due to the overseas demand pressure. Traders are trying to get in touch with flour millers in Punjab and other states.

The price of wheat flour has gone up to ₹2,600 per quintal from ₹2,400 two months back. With 5% GST, wheat flour price has already increased by ₹140 per quintal.

Naresh Ghai, president of the Punjab Roller Flour Mills Association, said the rates of maida have gone up in the last few months across states. "We are only processors of wheat.

The maida rates depend on the prices of wheat in the market. As the Punjab government has procured most of wheat in comparison with other states, the Centre should issue wheat under Open Market Sale Scheme (OMSS) for processors in Punjab so that the maida and suji (granulated wheat or semolina) rates come down."

More than one lakh lakh metric tonne of maida is exported. This year it might be a little more due to the rise in demand, said Ghai.

Vivek Nijhawan, owner of Magic Dough, and Jas Partap, owner of IL Forno Magico bakers, say production cost of bread and biscuits has gone up. "We have not yet passed it on to the consumer. But if maida prices keep increasing at this pace, we will have no option but to raise the prices of bakery products," says Nijhawan.

Action against officer, 'nurse' for vaxxing kids with one syringe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

THE district immunisation officer of Sagar in Madhya Pradesh has been suspended for dereliction of duty after over three dozen students were administered the Covid vaccine with a single syringe at a school on Wednesday. A criminal case has been registered against the vaccinator, who is said to be a nursing student engaged by the health department to vaccinate the children.

Sagar Divisional Commissioner Mukesh Shukla ordered the suspension of Dr Shobharam Roshan. The vaccinator, Jitendra Ahirwar, has been booked at the Gopalganj police station. As per sources, Ahirwar is a student of a college that is possibly part of a Sagar-based private university, whose name had recently cropped up over alleged interstate fake marksheet/degree racket busted by Hyderabad Police.

It remains to be seen what action is taken against other health department staffers, who had deputed Ahirwar for vaccinating the students of Jain Public Higher Secondary School, and the school management, which failed to take notice of the negligent act.

Sagar district chief medical and health officer Dr DK Goswami said the district immunisation officer had been using private individuals in the mega vaccination campaign. "More heads may roll as accountability is fixed," Goswami said.

Meanwhile, the blood reports of 19 of the vaccinated children haven't shown any infection. Reports of others are awaited.

2 die, many ill due to polluted water in junior Jal Shakti minister's constituency

WHILE the Union Ministry of Jal Shakti works to achieve PM Narendra Modi's dream of providing clean drinking water to every Indian household the under Jal Jeevan Mission's Har Ghar Nal scheme by 2024, back in the Lok Sabha constituency of the minister of state of the same department, Prahlad Patel, at least two villagers have died and almost 50 others have taken ill apparently due to consumption of contaminated water.

A man aged around 70 years and a younger woman from his family died, while dozens of others have fallen ill after they consumed water from a well in Khanchari Pati village of Damoh district.

According to doctors at the district hospital, where 11 patients are admitted, contaminated water has possibly led to the outbreak of acute gastroenteritis and associated problems in the village.

"By the time our team of doctors rushed to the village on Wednesday, on the instructions of the Damoh district chief medical and health officer Dr Sangeeta Trivedi, two deaths had already happened. Our team camped at the village and shifted at least 35 patients of mild dehydration to the nearby health centre. Ten others who were seriously ill were rushed to the Damoh district hospital," on-duty doctor told the media on Thursday.

"While all the 10 hospitalised patients are now out of danger, another patient who was in a critical condition, is now stabile," Deputy CMHO Dr Sachin Malaiya said.

A young girl who was among the patients said many villagers were suffering from acute diarrhoea and associated problems after consuming water from the well. "I lost my grandfather and aunt due to the stomach-related infection," she said.

Hotels to protest hike in bar licence fee

Hoteliers in Punjab might hang "do not disturb" signs outside their establishments from August 1 in protest against the revised excise policy of the state. This will see a whopping increase in the annual licence fees to operate in-house bars from `3 lakh to `5 lakh and also a steep increase in the VAT rates on liquor from 5 per cent to 22 per cent. Liquor has already been made cheaper, with the revised excise policy making liquor cheaper by 35-60 per cent. With the quota now being open, the rates of Indian Made Foreign Liquor (IMFL) and beer will be marginally down beginning July 1 and the prices of some brands on a par with those prevailing in Chandigarh. The rates will be 10 to 15 per cent lower than in Haryana. The aim is to stop liquor being smuggled into the state from both Haryana and Chandigarh.

Ate leaves, stems: Workers recall survival in jungle

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

LOST in a dense jungle of Arunachal Pradesh, Joynal Ali and his friends ate wild leaves and stems, slept in torrential rains and walked miles for 17 days and lived to tell the tale.

The construction labourers from Assam were reported missing after they entered the jungle after fleeing their camp at Huri in Kurung Kumey district bordering China in the dead of the night on July 5. Some were rescued last week.

Thirsty, hungry and tired, they rested or slept at every spot that they stumbled upon. "We walked endlessly for 17 days to get out of the jungle but did not find a way," he told the leaders of All Assam Minority Students' Union (AAMSU) who visited him at his house. The students filmed the visit on a cellphone and shared it with this newspaper.

The workers, who hail from different parts of Assam, were working on a road being constructed from Huri to the China border by the Border Roads Organisation.

"We relied entirely on water for the first two days. But as we started feeling weak, we began scouting for fruits. We came across wild fruits but found them inedible. We then ate banana stem, raw banana, wild leaves, etc," Ali said.

The jungle is infested with snakes and district magistrate Nighee Bengia said even the locals are afraid of venturing into it. Ali said they did come across the reptiles but were bitten by insects. "It rained for many days and we could not sleep. I have no idea how some of us got separated," Ali said.

Khairul Islam, another survivor, said he felt he got a new life. "During the last few days, I could barely move. I had lost all hopes of survival but God saved my life," Islam told the AAMSU leaders from his hospital bed at Naharlagun near Itanagar.

The workers had no strength left. Some were injured in the legs. The rescuers carried them to safety on their back.

Quoting the two survivors, AAMSU president Rejaul Karim Sarkar said they had fled due to shortage of food. Eid was also approaching and they wanted to go home, he said. AAMSU assistant general secretary Raju Rahman said they returned from jaws of death.

So far, 10 of the 19 workers have been rescued. Some of those rescued claimed three died in the jungle. The district administration said the search and rescue teams did not come across or recover any body.

Biden, Xi to look for middle ground

Taiwan, trade disputes dominate the two leaders' over two-hour-long video call

WASHINGTON

US President Joe Biden and Chinese counterpart Xi Jinping spoke by phone for well over two hours on Thursday on mounting tensions over Taiwan, a festering trade dispute and their bid to keep the superpower rivalry in check.

Both sides agreed that the talks were candid.

"The two presidents discussed a range of issues important to the bilateral relationship and other regional and global issues, and tasked their teams to continue following up on today's conversation," a White House readout of the call said. Xi underscored the need for the US and China to maintain communication on a range of issues including macro-economic policies, keeping supply chains stable and protecting global energy and food security, Xinhua reported.

The White House said that the call lasted two hours and 17 minutes.

The contentious Taiwan issue also came up for discussion with Biden asserting that the US policy has not changed and that Washington strongly opposes unilateral efforts to change the status quo. For his part, Xi said China will continue to oppose external interference in Taiwan, which Beijing claims is part of China.

"The position of the Chinese government and people on the Taiwan question is consistent, and resolutely safeguarding China's national sovereignty and territorial integrity is the firm will of the more than 1.4 billion Chinese people, Xi told Biden, according to Xinhua. "The will of the people cannot be defied and those who play with fire will perish by it," Xi warned Biden.

While this was Biden's fifth talk with Xi since becoming president a year and a half ago, it's getting hard to mask deepening mistrust between the two countries. Already stuck in a trade war, Beijing and Washington increasingly risk open conflict over Taiwan, with little sign of resolution on either front. "Tensions over China's aggressive, coercive behavior in the Indo-Pacific" will be high on the agenda, said White House National Security Council spokesman John Kirby.

The latest flashpoint is a possible trip by Biden ally and speaker of the House of Representatives, Nancy Pelosi, to the island.

Although US officials frequently visit Taiwan, separated by a narrow strip of water from the Chinese mainland, Beijing considers a Pelosi trip as a major provocation. She's second in line to the US presidency and given her position may travel with military transport. Washington will "bear the consequences" if the trip, which Pelosi has yet to confirm, goes ahead, China warned Wednesday.

Macron turns to MbS for energy needs

PARIS

FRENCH President Emmanuel Macron is welcoming Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman to his presidential palace on Thursday and offering him dinner in controversial talks that mark another step in the Saudi leader's diplomatic rehabilitation.

The visit from the prince comes after France and other European nations are seeking to secure sources of energy to lessen their dependence on oil and gas supplies from Russia. France is also a major weapons and defense supplier to Gulf nations.

This was the second stop after Greece of the prince's first official visit to the EU since Khashoggi's death.

French Prime Minister Élisabeth Borne said Macron could be counted on to raise human rights concerns with the prince, while also seeking to secure supplies of energy.

"Obviously, this isn't about casting aside our principles. It's not about calling into question our commitment in favour of human rights. The president will surely have an opportunity to talk about this with Mr Mohammed bin Salman," Borne said.

But she added: "In a context where we know that Russia is cutting... gas supplies and where we have tensions over energy prices, I think the French would not understand if we didn't talk to the countries that are...producers of energy." Hours before the meeting, the prince was targeted in a legal complaint filed in a Paris court by a human rights group. AP

Jack Ma to cede control of Ant Group amid pressure

BEIJING

CHINESE billionaire Jack Ma is set to cede his stakes in the Ant Group, the financial services behemoth he founded, The Wall Street Journal reported.

It comes as the Ant Group is reorganising itself into a financial holding company, which would be subject to a more stringent regulation by the Chinese central bank as a part of a lengthy state-guided restructuring process, which began soon after Ant Group's IPO was scuttled by the Chinese government at the last minute."As the overhaul progresses, Ant is taking the opportunity to reduce the company's reliance on Ma," the the US newspaper reported.

Though he owns only 10% shares of the Ant Group, Ma wields control over two other entities that together hold more than 50% stake in the company.

The latest development must be seen in the context of Ant Group's bid to move away from its affiliate Alibaba as a part of the forced restructring process.

Seven Ant Group executives including CEO Eric Jing and Chief Technology Officer Ni Xingjun were removed from Alibaba Partnership, a group that can nominate the majority of Alibaba's board, as of May 31, according to an annual report Tuesday.

5G AUCTION STRETCHES TO FOURTH DAY

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

THE 5G spectrum auction stretched to the fourth day (Friday) as the event witnessed a fierce competition for bands between cash-rich Reliance Jio and Bharti Airtel.

The government has received bids worth ₹1,49,623 crore after sixteen rounds as the auction ended for the third day.

On Thursday, seven rounds were conducted and the seventeenth rounds will begin on Friday.

Telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Thursday said 16 rounds of bidding have been completed in three days and the auction will continue on Friday. "Bids worth ₹1,49,623 crore have been received at the end of the third day," he said.

The government has put on sale 72 gigahertz of airwaves for a 20-year tenure in various frequency bands ranging from 26 gigahertz to 600 megahertz. According to the 5G auction modalities, airwaves across Low (600 MHz, 700 MHz, 800 MHz, 900 MHz, 1800 MHz, 2100 MHz, 2300 MHz), Mid (3300 MHz) and High (26 GHz) frequency bands have been put up for bidding.

The government has permitted telecom operators to pay in 20 equal installments to ensure a successful auction. Experts believe the mid and high band spectrums will be utilised by telecom service providers to rollout 5G services. India's largest telecom operator Reliance Jio has made a ₹14,000 crore earnest money deposit (EMD), Bharti Airtel has put in ₹5,500 crore and debt-laden Vodafone Idea has made ₹2,200 crore. Interestingly, cash-rich Gautam Adani-led Adani Data Network put in ₹100 crore EMD. EMD indicates the maximum quantity of airwaves a company can bid for in the auction, usually companies can bid 8-10x of the EMD amount.

From a consumer point of view, 5G technology will be 10 times faster than 4G and 30 times faster than 3G, and also it will allow a greater number of devices to be connected to a faster mobile network in a smaller area without any loss of speed. Meanwhile, India has decided to keep away Chinese telecom gear makers from India's 5G market. In addition to powering ultra-low latency connections, 5G would enable solutions such as e-health, connected vehicles, more-immersive augmented reality and metaverse experiences, life-saving use cases, and advanced mobile cloud gaming.

17th round of bidding

Telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Thursday said sixteen rounds of bidding have been completed in three days and the 17th round of auction will be conducted on Friday.
The government has put on sale
72 gigahertz of airwaves for a 20-year tenure in various frequency bands ranging from 26 gigahertz to 600 megahertz

Markets surge on Fed commentary

Fed decision to raise interest rate by 75bps was in line and factored in by the market

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

EQUITY markets witnessed a major surge on Thursday with Benchmark indices- Sensex and Nifty- ending higher for the second straight session, led by heavy buying in Bajaj Finance and Bajaj Finserv shares.

The Sensex jumped 1,041.47 points to end at 56,857.79 while the Nifty moved ahead 287.80 points to close at 16,929.60. Bajaj Finance was the top Sensex gainer ending 11% higher, followed by Bajaj Finserv rising 10% post a better than expected June quarter earnings.

The rally came on the back of positive commentary made by FOMC (Federal Open Market Committee) in its July meet and its decision to raise interest rate by 75bps which was in line and factored by the market.

Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell pointed to the robust labour market as evidence that the US economy is not in recession and said that at some point of time they will slow down the rate of interest hike. The statement lifted global market sentiment.

However, the second quarter US GDP data proved Fed chairman's statement wrong as the US economy in the second quarter of 2022 shrank by 0.9%. This is the second straight quarter where the economy has contracted. In Q1CY2022, the US GDP had tumbled by 1.6%. The US economy now is in a (technical) recession, with GDP falling for a second quarter in a row.

The negative US GDP numbers may play spoilsports on Indian market sentiment today. However, the US equity markets on Thursday recovered the early losses and remained flat during the day.

"Although we have witnessed a strong rally today (Thursday) in our markets too, one needs to be watchful of the second quarter US gross domestic product (GDP) numbers. This assumes significance since the first quarter GDP declined by 1.6% annualised and consecutive quarter declines in GDP are widely seen as a recessionary climate." Said Vineet Bagri, Managing Partner- TrustPlutus Wealth.

Bagri added that we also need to see the FPI flows over the next few weeks given the 75bps rate hike announced. In a major relief, July has seen minimal FPI outflows, the trajectory of which could change over the next few weeks, he said.

On Thursday, FPI were net buyers of Indian equities and debts to the tune of Rs 1,638 crore, while domestic institutional investors were net buyer of ₹600 crore.

DGCA: Airlines deployed qualified staff at all stations

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

AMID rising technical glitches in flights mid-air, scheduled airlines have informed the civil aviation regulator DGCA that all stations are now being manned by qualified engineering personnel at all their stations.

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) in its spot checks conducted on July 18 had found that insufficient and unqualified engineering personnel are certifying planes of various carriers before their departure. Before each departure, an aircraft is checked and certified by an aircraft maintenance engineer (AME).

The regulator had then asked airlines to deploy sufficient and qualified AME personnel by July 28.

In a statement on Thursday, the regulator said: "Based on reports of increased engineering related occurrences in scheduled airlines in recent times, DGCA conducted several audit/ spot checks, which indicated improper identification of cause of a reported defect, increasing trend of MEL (minimum equipment list) releases and insufficient certifying staff."

The regulator said that in order to address the shortfalls, a series of meetings were held with the airlines wherein they were told to "make available the required type rated certifying staff at all stations" for ensuring that the defects are properly rectified before the aircraft is released for operations.

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE capital market regulator, Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi), has imposed a penalty of ₹10 crore each on Malvinder and Shivinder Singh, former promoters of Religare Enterprises, after they were found involved in diversion of loans from group NBFC companies – Religare Finvest (RFL) and Religare Enterprises (REL).

>
> Joseph Anantharaju, Happiest Minds

Joseph Anantharaju, Executive Vice Chairman & CEO – Product Engineering Services (PES), Happiest Minds Technologies, told TNIE that the demand environment continues to remain strong with customers sustaining spend especially on digital initiatives.

"Most customers realise that they need to digitalise their business to remain competitive and see digital not as a discretionary spend but as an imperative. We do see customers prioritising between projects to take up those with immediate impact while pushing out others to the latter part of the year," Anantharaju said.

Customers are also exploring ways to consolidate applications and infrastructure and leverage existing technology assets to optimise on spend, he added.

Its trailing 12 months attrition stood at 24.4%. In the current market environment, both hiring and retaining talent is one of the main challenges, the executive vice chairman said. Many IT companies are now focusing on emerging technologies such as Metaverse and Web 3.0, and Happiest Minds too is focusing on these new technologies. It has helped customers in leveraging the power of IoT, Robotics and AR/VR.

'Have adequate capacity to meet power demand'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

EVEN as the country has faced acute power shortage in the peak of summer, the power ministry on Thursday claimed that there is adequate installed power capacity in the country to meet the demand.

Power minister R K Singh, in a written reply to the Lok Sabha, said the country is self-reliant in meeting its demand of electricity, adding that the installed generation capacity of the county is 403.76 GigaWatt (GW), which is sufficient to meet the peak power demand.

Peak power demand of the country is around 215.89 GW, this year which had occurred in April, said the minister.

As per the load generation balance report 2022-23, published by the Central Electricity Authority (CEA), the country's energy requirement is assessed to be at 1,505,198 million units (MU) as against the energy availability of 15,49,597 MU for 2022-23. Contrary to the ministry's claim, many states like Telegana, Maharashtra, Bihar and Uttar Pradesh reported long power cuts. Power plants faced immense coal shortage and to meet demand the government had asked Coal India to import coal on behalf of gencos.

BIRMINGHAM 2022 commonwealth games

17 | BENGALURU FRIDAY 29.07.2022

BRUM'S DAY

6 Of the 72 nations (current number of CWG participating teams), only six have taken part in all the editions, dating back to 1930. Australia, Canada, England, New Zealand, Scotland, and Wales are these nations. India have missed just four editions (1930, 1950, 1962, and 1986).

I've experienced homophobia all my life, competing in countries where it's illegal to be me and where I don't feel safe to leave the venue I'm competing in. If I feel like that as a privileged man, I can't imagine what day-to-day life is like for LGBTQ+ people around the commonwealth.

ANMOL GURUNG @ Chennai

JOSH wahi, andaaz naya (Same vigour, new style). With the faces of all the CWG participants, one of Boxing Federation of India's promotional posters ahead of the marquee event has those words engraved in it. "We have tall expectations this time. Hopefully, our boxers can deliver and we can finish in the top three," one of the prominent officials from the federation tells this daily when asked about what to expect from the contenders in the next few days.

MC Mary Kom, considered to be the face of Indian boxing, is not in the picture this time. However, the women's team boasts some serious talent in Nikhat Zareen, who's entering the marquee event after a historic performance not so long ago during the IBA Women's World Championships. Lovlina Borgohain has grown from strength-to-strength over the years and the Tokyo Olympics medallist will be determined to put behind the recent off-the-ring hiccup and deliver a strong show.

Then there are first-timers in the form of Nitu Ghanghas, a former youth world champion. The 48kg boxer, who hails from Bhiwani (Haryana), will be keen to leave a mark and establish her name in the senior circuit ahead of crucial Olympic qualifiers and Asian Games next year. Jaismine Lamboria, the other newcomer, will have similar aspirations.

Lovlina Borgohain (left) in the 70 kg and Nikhat Zareen in 50 kg carry India's medal hopes at Birmingham as boxers look to better Gold Coast haul

"The way each member of the team is mentally conditioned, there's hope that everyone can reach the medal rounds. Each one of them is hungry for success and keen to give their 100 per cent," Bhaskar Bhatt, India women's chief coach, told this newspaper from Birmingham.

Bhaskar's assessment is not misplaced. CWG has always been one of the happy hunting grounds for Indians. In the 2018 edition, the pugilists from the country had finished second with a total of nine medals (3 gold, 3 silver and 3 bronze), behind toppers England, who had the same number of medals but had six gold to their name.

Add to the fact that the current batch was part of the Ireland tour, where they trained with some elite pugilists, which has raised expectations. Lovlina and the rest of the Indians had some technical sessions with pugilists from nations like England, Ireland, and Australia, to name a few, in the build-up to the Birmingham challenge.

"Some of the top boxers were part of that tour. It was a healthy environment and our boxers were able to make the most of those sessions. The climate was also close to what it is here (Birmingham), so that should also help," Bhatt said.

With the participants being less in the women's draw, they have a relatively easier path ahead then men.

The men's side also boasts some accomplished names like Shiva Thapa and Amit Panghal. Having been in the shadows after a tame show during the Tokyo Olympics, the latter will be intent on regaining his old form. Before the Tokyo disaster, Panghal had set the ring on fire with some consistent medal-winning performances. Having shown his mettle during the national trials recently, Panghal — a silver medallist during the 2018 Games — now has a solid chance to restore pride and get some much-needed confidence pill ahead of vital events in 2023.

Shiva, a former World Championships medallist, also has had quiet outings in recent times and will be determined to get some solid bouts under his name.

Mohammad Hussamuddin (57kg) is the other Indian male boxer in the current batch who had medalled at the last edition. Besides the three, Sanjeet, who plays his trade in the 92kg category, has a solid chance of going all the way. The talented youngster, who had missed out on Tokyo Olympics, had made a name for himself by clinching gold during the 2021 Asian Championships in Dubai, defeating an Olympic medallist in the process.

Marriage to natl camp, Gururaja seeks glory

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

HAILING from a modest background, Gururaja had no option but to excel in either academics or sports to get out of the vicious circle of poverty. He chose the latter, and in search of a better life started living in a hostel away from his family when he was in Class 8. Years of hard work and sacrifice paid off as he won a national medal in 2014 and was employed by the Indian Air Force the next year.

He won several international medals in the next couple of years to cement his place in the national squad. It was he who started the medal rush for the country at the 2018 Gold Coast Commonwealth Games (CWG) when he won the 56kg silver. Once again the onus will be on him to ensure the country starts on a bright note when the weightlifting competitions begin on Saturday.

Despite being a regular in the circuit for quite a few years now, Gururaja's journey to Birmingham was not easy. As was the case in the past, the 30-year-old lifter from Karnataka was forced to stay away from his family — to be precise from his wife Saujanya — just a month after marrying her last year. "It was a love-cum-arrange marriage. She is from my village and once our families agreed we got married in May last year. I left home next month to prepare for nationals. I haven't met her since then as after the nationals, I was training at the national camp for the Asian and CWG," Gururaja said.

They might have to stay away from each other soon after the marriage but the lifter believes it only strengthened the bond between the two. "She knows my priorities and she understands it. With premium events like Asiad and CWG lined up, she knows I have to work hard to finish on the podium. I hope the sacrifices will pay off once again as they did in the past," added Gururaja.

Australia first up for Harman & Co

GOMESH S @ Chennai

In the lead up to the India-Australia clash during the 2022 ODI World Cup, all the build up was about how if there were a team to stop the Australian juggernaut, it would be the Women in Blue. Although Australians proved to be unstoppable, bagging yet another World Cup in the end, the argument did have its share of merits.

After all, India did end their record-breaking winning streaking a few months prior. They are the only team to beat Australia in the two previous T20 World Cups. Which is why, once again, as India and Australia are set to kickstart the debut of women's cricket in the Commonwealth Games on Friday, the focus has come back to the same argument.

Australia have picked up from where they left in the World Cup final, winning the tri-series in Ireland, and are coming into the Birmingham Games with a full strength squad.

India, on the other hand, were hampered by Covid even before they left for England.

India's Smriti Mandhana during a practice session at Edgbaston

While Sabbineni Meghana would be joining the team before the opening game, in all likelihood she might not be in the starting XI. Pooja Vastrakar, who is still in India, would be a big miss, especially in the opening clash against Australia. The Madhya Pradesh all-rounder has grown into a vital cog in the Indian side ever since she made a comeback last year. In Sri Lanka, she was spearheading the inexperienced pace attack while also providing the cushion as a lower-order hitter in the batting.

In her absence, India could potentially field an all-spin attack. With Meghna Singh yet to make her T20I debut, Renuka Singh Thakur could be the lone seamer in the XI. In a way, it could become a blessing in disguise if the likes of Rajeshwari Gayakwad, Radha Yadav, Deepti Sharma, and Sneh Rana step up and deliver. India cricketer Veda Krishnamurthy believes they can.

"The spin bowling department is pretty experienced. They will always fall back on Deepti and Rajeshwari (Gayakwad) to kind of control the game. The attack is really strong with Deepti and Rajeshwari bowling in tandem," said Veda.

But it also depends on the conditions that are on offer. A day before the game, India captain Harmanpreet Kaur said that the pitch has been covered to avoid rain if any. "The nets are pretty similar here. It looks good for batting and the bowlers get some help as well because of the weather and the grass of the wicket. I think there will be something for both batters and bowlers," said Harmanpreet on Thursday.

CHESS OLYMPIAD

Eating together & playing casual chess variants

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

OVER the last few weeks, Srinath Narayanan has put his team through the proverbial wringer. The captain of the India 'A' team — one of the favourites to medal in the Open category at the 44th chess Olympiad — used open training sessions every day after breakfast. A few hours after dinner, the team would still be at it, reliving the day's session. But it's not been wall to wall in terms of intensity. To ensure team spirit, they also mixed and matched things a bit.

Here's Srinath explaining what a typical training day has looked like with his wards, P Harikrishna, Vidit Gujrathi, Arjun Erigaisi, SL Narayanan and Krishnan Sasikiran. "The timing is informal," he told this daily. "We have breakfast together and it starts then. That session goes on till lunch, till about 2.00 to 2.30 pm. It involves going through drills, working on specific things and playing training games. "We go again post lunch till dinner when we break at around 7.30 pm. Post that is when we begin winding down for the day which is very important after a tiring day."

Now, what do these sessions entail? They work on specific parts of chess — opening and endgame to name two — and also play some training games.

To get a better understanding, Srinath, who was captain of the team that won joint gold at the online Olympiad in 2020, uses a cricketing analogy. "In layman's terms, it deals with one-on-one contests. How did Sachin Tendulkar counter the threat of Shane Warne when the Australian came to India? He would look at how he would bowl, and where he would bowl and prepare accordingly. It has a lot of one-on-one components, very information based. You try to visualise what can happen and you prepare for it. Some part of it is information based, you collect data, you feed information to yourself and part of it is how muscle memory works. Muscle memory in physical sports (in cricket at least) would be the bowler bowling in a particular spot. In chess, there are similar patterns."

To keep spirits as high as possible within the camp, the team has taken a conscious decision to do most things together, including eating and watching movies. "The team bonding is coming along nicely," Srinath, a GM, explained. "We essentially eat together, go on walks together, go to pool together. We also play casual games together."

INDIAN SQUAD

OPEN SECTION: Team A: Vidit Gujrathi, P Harikrishna, Arjun Erigiasi, SL Narayanan, Kiran Sasikiran Team B: B Adhiban, R Praggnanandhha, Nihal Sarin, D Gukesh, Raunak Sadhwani Team C: Surya Sekhar Ganguly, Karthikeyan Murali, SP Sethuraman, Abhijeet Gupta, Abhimanyu Puranik
WOMEN Team A: Koneru Humpy, Harika Dronavalli, R Vaishali, Tania Sachdev, Bhakti Kulkarni Team B: Vantika Agarwal, Sowmya Swaminathan, Mary Ann Gomes, Padmini Rout, Divya Deshmukh Team C: Eesha Karavade, PV Nandhidhaa, M Sahithi Varshini, Bodda Pratyusha, Vasnawala Vishwa

Casual games include lots of chess variants where two players team up to make alternate moves (almost like the doubles in table tennis).

Interestingly, one thing the team haven't been doing over the last 2-3 weeks is having streaming sessions on Twitch. Srinath explained the rationale. "There is no streaming or any kind of content going on," the 28-year-old Srinath said. "Nothing for the last two weeks. Everything else is on complete pause right now as a lot of focus and attention is taken away by the preparation."

India have medalled in each of the last two Olympiads — online versions in 2020 (joint gold with Russia) and 2021 (bronze) — but an over-the-board event is a different beast. Srinath is quick to caution that India face a significant challenge. "Online was completely different. We had different categories. Open, junior, women, women juniors. India had a bit more of an advantage because they have the best talent among the juniors so there was a clear superiority. With the lack of categories (this time), the field is more levelled." In the venue itself, you talk to people and they are quick to envy the country's riches, especially in the Open category.

Will they be able to translate the talent to something substantial in the game's blue-riband team event? The next 10 days will provide answers.

Shuttlers geared up for top service

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

NOT long ago, Indian shuttlers had soared high, capturing the imaginations of many during the Thomas Cup. The men's side had displayed fighting spirit, camaraderie to do the impossible and lift the Cup — considered to be the highest honour in the team event.

They'll once again look to conjure a similar tale when the badminton event kicks off at the CWG, starting with the mixed team event. Clubbed in Group 1 alongside three other teams, India will begin their title defence against Pakistan. The other teams in the group are Australia and Sri Lanka. PV Sindhu, who has had a decorated career so far, continues to boss around and get colossal wins at big stages of the game. Lakshya Sen continues to evolve as a player, adding more gloss to his game. K Srikanth, despite a couple of misses in the recent BWF events, is one of the top players India have banked on over the years. If these players are on song, India could be hard to stop.
